

These are the lovely hosts of Saturday's Girth & Mirth of Delaware Valley party.

Chubs at play.

Never satisfied!

On Sunday there was an all-you-can-eat brunch.

Here are the troops,
with weapons in hand,
returning to the trenches.
The fight for fat goes on!

Mr. Weight Gain EncourageCon '92

This is Harold [REDACTED], the winner of our EncourageCon weight gain contest. When Harold weighed in on Friday he weighed 180 lbs. When he weighed out on Sunday the scale read 184 lbs. He beat his closest competitor by two pounds. On Sunday Harold was presented with a box of chocolates.

After spending a lifetime of being thin, without it making him any happier, Harold has decided to go for the gusto, and the desert; and live his life without worry about weight.

Congratulations Harold. May each new pound find you healthier and happier!
